

Irish Education: Rights and Responsibilities

The Special Education Journey

Dr. David J. Carey

“The world is wide and wonderful but everywhere, everywhere the children are dying.”

Edward Abbey
American author

“The problem with most people is they’re alive and don’t know what to do about it.”

William Saroyan
American-Armenian author

ADHD, Dyslexia, Dyspraxia and Asperger's

Rights (or are they?)

appropriate education

support services

IEP (actually not a right)

SNA-good luck!

Cooperating classroom teacher

home/school diary

participation in the full life of the school

Responsibilities

telling the truth about your child pinpointing strengths and weaknesses cooperating with teachers communication fighting for your rights

Challenges

limited resources

untrained teachers

limited knowledge about conditions

limited health services

the economy

Opportunities

an election!

Maybe you can think of something else?

Want to Know More?

www.davidjcarey.com

www.hadd.ie

www.tsireland.com